

Council on Postsecondary Education
Committee on Equal Opportunities
June 19, 2006

News Articles of Interest

The attached articles and publications are related to equal opportunities and access to postsecondary education.

COMMISSION: FIX THE FAFSA

Wick Sloane urges the U.S. higher ed panel to make one simple change that will help needy students more than perhaps any other.

<http://insidehighered.com/views/2006/05/18/sloane>

NO PAIN, NO GAIN

Educators consider how to make high schools more rigorous so low-income students can qualify for new federal grants for college.

<http://insidehighered.com/news/2006/05/16/rigor>

Columbia U. Panel Says 2-Year Colleges Must Provide More than Access

<http://www.ccweek.com/NewsPage.asp?nid=20>

ACT test to be part of state assessment

<http://www.kentucky.com/mld/kentucky/news/local/states/kentucky/counties/franklin/14581457.htm>

Ready or Not

<http://insidehighered.com/news/2006/05/08/act>

MSU presidency is 'Dunn' deal (Murray Ledger & Times)

http://www.murrayledger.com/articles/2006/05/13/top_story/news01.txt

MOMENTUM FOR GOING SAT-OPTIONAL

More liberal arts colleges do away with test requirements; institutions that did so last year see big gains in numbers and diversity.

<http://insidehighered.com/news/2006/05/26/sat>